Description

The Derek Trucks Band will headline the 29th annual Metro Fountain Blues Festival on Saturday, May 9, 2009 from 12:30 to 8:00 p.m. on the San Carlos Plaza at San José State University.

In addition to Trucks, (who will begin at 6:30 p.m.), the festival line up includes San José natives The Tommy Castro Band with special guest Chris Cain (who will begin at 4:45 p.m.). Other artists include Lurrie Bell's Chicago Blues Band (3:35 p.m.), Candye Kane Band with Laura Chavez (2:30 p.m.), The Bay Area Blues Society Caravan of Allstars (1:30 p.m.) and John Wedemeyer (12:30 p.m.)

In addition to great music, patrons can enjoy food and craft vendors, a beer and wine garden, state of the art sound, and a family friendly atmosphere.

The Metro Fountain Blues Festival costs only $5 for all day admission and hosts over 8000 blues enthusiasts throughout the day. SJSU Students may attend for free with a valid Tower Card.

Patrons are encouraged to ride VTA to the festival, and can get a free trip plan by calling (408) 321-2300 or visiting www.vta.org.

*Set times are approximate and subject to change.
